Obsidian Cabernet Sauvignon '13

$29.99 / btl - save $11

93 Wine Advocate

"The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon has impressive intensity, a dense ruby/purple color, loads of licorice, graphite, mineral and black fruits, a medium to full body and moderate tannin."

Garage Wine Co Carignan Lot 45 '13

$28.99 / btl - save $6

94 Wine Advocate

The nose is floral, elegant and subtle, a little closed at first, becoming deeper and more nuanced with time in the glass. The palate shows great, citric freshness with a thread of fine acidity going through its backbone. It has character, notes of the earth and also those violets only the best Cariñena can provide. Absolutely great, with a long life ahead.

Saint Roch Kerbuccio Maury Sec Rouge, '14

$16.99 / btl - save $7

93 Wine Advocate

Lots of upfront black raspberry, cassis, licorice, wild herbs and violet-like aromas and flavors in this beauty from Languedoc. Coming all from the black schist soils of the newly created Maury Sec AOC, this full-bodied, sexy, supple is equally fresh and lively!

Alexandria Nicole Alderdale Cabernet '13

$37.99 / btl - save $10

94 Wine Spectator

An estate grown Cabernet Sauvignon - rich and bold, with a brilliant combination of fresh black currant, tobacco and vanilla dominating the highly aromatic nose. The sensual bouquet is gently lifted by the racy mid palate, packed with dark fruit, licorice and hints of spice and clove. The wine is dry with gripping tannins that roll steadily all the way through the long and robust finish that supports its resilient brightness. The wine is continuing to show beautiful characteristics of bold, fruit ripeness while remaining elegant, balanced, and structured to last.

Domaine Eden Pinot Noir '13

95 Wine Enthusiast / 94 Wine Advocate

A stunner from the folks at Mount Eden who remain one of our most prized and loved New World producers! Lush, deep and so refined, this Pinot is a blend of dry-farmed Pinot from Mount Eden's home vineyard, and an estate vineyard at the Domaine property on the next mountain over, located in the cooler Santa Cruz Mountain range. Dark cherries, wild huckleberries, earth and sweet tobacco notes on a world class finish. Limited production!

Harper Voit Old Vine Riesling

Maresh Vineyard '15

$26.99 / btl - save $6

94 Wine Enthusiast

Succulent, dense, captivating. Scents of pollen, honey, tea and apricot lead into a mouthful of similar flavors. The tastes of apricot jam show tremendous concentration and length. It's a gorgeous effort that should continue to age and evolve now through at least 2030.

Gramercy Cellars Syrah Lagniappe '13

$49.99 / btl - save $15

94 Wine Advocate

The star of the show! Master Sommelier at the age of 25, Greg Harrington, saw the potential of Syrah in Washington when he started Gramercy in 2005. He hasn't looked back since! We adore his wines, and they keep getting better and better. Named after the French/Cajun term meaning "a little something extra" the 2013 Syrah Lagniappe will surprise you! Notes of sappy herbs, spring flowers, pepper and ample darker fruits. Tight, focused, medium to full-bodied and elegant.

Finca Sandoval '09

$27.99 / btl - save $7

93 Wine Advocate

The new wood lends it modern flair, with vanilla-tinged, ripe black cherry fruit as well as hints of violet emerging with time in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied, very well-balanced with fine, expressive tannins.

Teso La Monja Almirez Toro '12

$23.99 / btl - save $3

93 Wine Advocate

A spectacular wine from vines planted between 1949 and 1999. Sensational, inky/purple color, followed by aromas of ground pepper, blackberries and cassis. This full-bodied, Northern Rhône Valley-like Spanish red exhibits meaty notes, terrific density and purity, with a linger finish. It should drink nicely for a decade or more.

Latta Northridge Malbec Wahluke Slope '11

$46.99 / btl - save $3

95 Wine Advocate

This opaque purple/black wine has a soaring perfume of mineral, lavender, exotic spices, incense, blueberry, licorice, and dusty cocoa. Layered and structured, this effort will see benefit from 4-5 years of additional cellaring and should drink well for the next twenty.

Luigi Pira Barolo 'Serralunga' '12

$33.99 / btl - save $11

93 Wine Spectator

Now here's an absolutely killer deal in top notch, single vineyard Barolo! And the Wine Spectator agrees, "Dense and complex, with a saline edge to the cherry, licorice, tar and underbrush flavors. The tannins are dense, mouthcoating and dusty, yet feel ripe. The lasting impression is of sweet fruit. Best from 2020 through 2034."

Puech Haut Prestige Rouge '13

$17.99 / btl - save $4

New to Esquin and the U.S.!! When we previewed the delicious and super-well priced offerings from Tribaut recently-we were floored! Family-owned since the 20's, this house has a drier and more refined house style which reminds us of some grower bubbles we offer in the $50-65 range! This Rose is a fuller bodied bend of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Munier. Round and succulent with cherry, red currant and wild strawberry notes with a touch of earth and finishes full with a glorious mousse. Superior with smoked salmon and creamy Brie!
